South African Society for Enology and Viticulture will keep your personal information confidential at all times, however, you agree and consent that South African Society for Enology and Viticulture may:

- a) Communicate with you electronically in relation with the service or product being provided (email, fax, telephone or through any other relevant or secured electronic platform)
- b) Obtain any relevant personal information, from any person or institution, necessary to comply with the agreement between you and South African Society for Enology and Viticulture.
- c) Obtain credit information from any person or institution where necessary
- d) Verify the information provided herein and to contact other third party for purposes of the same
- e) Disclose personal information to regulatory or government agencies in accordance with the relevant legislation or directive
- f) Use personal information to market new or other products of the company which may be suitable or relevant to you

Individuals screened for COVID 19
The following needs to be explained verbally to anyone who needs to complete documentation with personal information for COVID 19 Screening. It may also be documented on the document to be completed:

The personal information collected is necessary to comply with the COVID 19 screening as required by the Disaster management Act and supplementary regulations and directives. This information will be kept confidential unless disclosure is required by law. E.g. should a positive case be identified. This information will be stored for a period of 3 months and thereafter be destroyed. If you do not provide the information as required, we can limit or refuse you access to the premises.

Consent
Where the legal basis for us processing your personal information is consent as above, it will be included in the contract or agreement concluded with you. This consent may be withdrawn at any time, however this withdrawal of consent will not make processing we undertook before your withdrawal unlawful. You will not suffer any detriment for withdrawing your consent.

You may withdraw your consent by contacting our information officer, whose details are provided at the beginning of the privacy policy.

Where the legal basis for processing is for the proper performance of the contract, and you fail to provide us with the information or request us to stop processing this information, it may create limitations on our performance of the contract or agreement.

We may use your information for data analysis, identifying usage trends, determining the effectiveness of our promotional campaigns and to evaluate and improve our service, products and marketing.

Sharing information
In processing your personal information, we may share it with third party processors under an operator’s agreement. These include but are not limited to:

   a) Server hosts

As an operator, these service providers will not be able to process or use your data for any reason other than to provide the service as required by us. They also need to implement proper safeguards.

Retention
South African Society for Enology and Viticulture is required to comply with various different legislative retention periods, which leads to different retention requirements. As such we have opted for the longest retention period required from us for legal purposes and apply this to all our data. Your personal information will be kept for at least 5 years after your loan has been settled in order for us to comply with all legal requirements.

Your legal rights
You have the following rights under the Protection of Personal Information Act:

   a) Request access to your personal information
   b) Request a correction or deletion of personal information
   c) Object to the processing of personal information
   d) Lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator

If you want to exercise any of the rights described above, or are dissatisfied with the way we have used your personal information, please contact the information officer.

Changes to this policy
This policy may change from time to time. The latest effective date will be highlighted at the start of the privacy policy.
